

TEVA PHARMACEUTICAL INDUSTRIES LTD.

April 11, 2010

Dear Teva Poland Colleague,

On behalf of Teva's Board of Directors, Management and all our employees around the globe, I want to express our deepest and sincere condolences with the people of Poland on the sudden and tragic death of Polish President Lech Kaczynski, his wife, and other senior officials in yesterday's plane crash.

We share with you and the people of Poland the grief and loss of an important leader who was highly respected by the international community for his efforts to promote peace and progress worldwide.

Our thoughts and sympathies are with you all during this time of national mourning. May the Polish People find the courage and strength to overcome this tragedy.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Shlomo Yanai". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Shlomo Yanai

President and CEO